The report of E. HARVEY N. JOHNSON, JR., Newark, 11/6/53, requests certain investigations concerning subject at the Philadelphia Signal Corp Procurement District namely: Locate and interview former co-workers and ascertain current addresses of fellow employees who have left the United States employment. New York Office believes that this lead should be disregarded inasmuch as many of these employees have been located and interviewed and also to avoid additional duplication. The New York Office is presently attempting to cover this phase of the investigation at this time. However, in contacting the Philadelphia Signal Corp Procurement Office, it is requested that attempts be made to locate any administrative data available concerning subject including items such as his travel order assignments.

It is also requested that during the same contacts that information be secured concerning JOSEPH LEVITSKY along the same lines as outlined above. It is also noted that the Newark report requests that all logical informants be contacted concerning subject. In this matter, it should be noted that JULIUS ROSENBERG was an active worker of the FAECT in the period 1939 to 1940.

In 1942 when returning to the New York area, ROSENBERG was again active in organizing Branch #16 of the Communist Party, New York City. Therefore, the possibility exists that he may have organized a cell while employed by the Philadelphia Office of the Signal Corp, a nucleus of this cell being LEVITSKY, GREENBLUM, WALKER, HODES, and the other engineers mentioned as having resided and worked with ROSENBERG in Philadelphia in 1940 and 1941. Contacting informants is suggested as informants may have information along the above lines. Also any information in your file pertaining to FLACET in the period 1940-1941 may furnish information of value concerning the activities of ROSENBERG, the subject and others.

Re New York let to Director, 1/8/58.

On 2/17/58, DAVID GREENGLASS, convicted espionage agent, U.S. Penitentiary, Lewisburg, Pa., furnished the following to SA THOMAS E. SAUNDERS:

GREENGLASS stated that on 2/1,2/58 while confined at the West Street Jail, New York City, in connection with a funeral trip permitted him at the time of the death of his mother, he observed Colonel RUDOLF IVANOVICH ABEL in a cell at the West Street Jail, while dressing to attend the funeral. GREENGLASS stated that in addition to previously having viewed photographs of ABEL which were published in newspapers and magazines and now having seen ABEL in person, he definitely can say that he has never knowingly observed ABEL prior to his being convicted on espionage charges.

Regarding statements previously made that it was conjecture on his part, but he felt that ABEL was JULIUS ROSENBERG's contact subsequent to 1948, GREENGLASS stated that his reasoning in this regard is as follows:

Sometime in 1947, the exact period of time unknown, ROSENBERG lost contact with the Soviet. He said that he knows this is true as he had requested money of ROSENBERG and ROSENBERG told him that he had lost contact and to obtain money he would have to borrow some from one of his friends, which he did not care to do. GREENGLASS continued that later, sometime in 1948,

ROSENBERG did make contact with the Soviet and was "flush" with money and did, in fact, give some to GREENGLASS. Furthermore, ROSENBERG told GREENGLASS that his new contact was a "sweet setup" in that he could meet him in theaters, outlying sections, and other special places which were not mentioned to GREENGLASS. As stated before, GREENGLASS stated this new contact was never identified to him by ROSENBERG. ✓

GREENGLASS stated that now, after reading about ABEL and the methods which were used by him to obtain information, which were similar to those described by ROSENBERG, he feels that it was possible that ABEL was ROSENBERG's new contact. He said it appeared to him that ABEL was interested in technical information and that was the kind of information that ROSENBERG furnished. Further, that ABEL used microfilm to relay this information which was another thing that ROSENBERG did. GREENGLASS further pointed out the time coincidence, in that ROSENBERG re-established contact with the Soviet at about the same time that ABEL is reported to have entered the United States, that is, in 1948. In conclusion, GREENGLASS pointed out that ABEL is reported to have had access to a sizeable amount of money, and noted that it was in 1948 that JULIUS ROSENBERG suddenly became "flush" after making recontact with the Soviet. ✓

GREENGLASS said that it is for the reasons stated above he thought it worthy to mention his thoughts in the matter. He further advised after viewing the photographs of ABEL, that he is identical with the person pointed out to him as ABEL at the West Street Jail and, as previously stated, is totally unfamiliar to him. ✓

On 2/17/58, HARRY GOLD, convicted espionage agent, viewed the photographs of ABEL and stated that ABEL is totally unfamiliar to him and was never a part of his previous activities. GOLD stated that he hesitates to make any statements that are not factual but he has noted, after reading the details of ABEL's arrest, the similarity of operation between ABEL's alleged activities and those of persons who were active with him. GOLD stated, "It fits right into the pattern and until someone else is positively identified as such, I am sure that ABEL took over as ROSENBERG's superior in the United States." GOLD stated that he wants it completely understood that this is pure conjecture on his part. He further noted that there must have been many who rested easier after the execution of the ROSENBERGS, which he characterized as a "suicide" rather than an execution. ✓

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI

DATE: December 22, 1950

FROM : SAC, Chicago

SUBJECT: EDWARD JOSEPH MILLER
BUREAU APPLICANT - SPECIAL AGENT
(Bufile 67-440179)

Re report of SA GEORGE N. WOODLEY, Chicago, Illinois, 6/19/50, which set out the results of investigation in this division pertaining to MILLER.

In connection with the investigation in the Chicago Division of the case entitled "DAVID GREENGLASS, was; ESPIONAGE - R" (Bufile 65-59028), ~~SA~~ MARY MEYERING, Alumni Association, University of Chicago, on 11/27/50, advised SA W. RULON PAXMAN that THOMAS ALLAN FINEBERG, 1746 Estes Avenue, Chicago 26, Illinois, in June, 1946, listed EDWARD J. MILLER, 4027 N. Downer, Shorewood, Wisconsin, as the person who would always know his whereabouts. Information in possession of the Chicago office does not permit a definite determination as to the possible identity of EDWARD JOSEPH MILLER with the EDWARD J. MILLER listed by FINEBERG. It is noted that in Bureau letter to Milwaukee dated 8/29/49, pertaining to EDWARD JOSEPH MILLER, a copy of which was received by Chicago, the address of 4233 N. Larkin Street, Shorewood, Wisconsin, appears as the address for EDWARD JOSEPH MILLER'S parents, brothers and sisters. The fact that this address is also in Shorewood, Wisconsin, and the fact that the names are identical indicates the possibility that the two MILLERS are the same.

Information pertaining to THOMAS ALLAN FINEBERG appears in the reports of SA W. RULON PAXMAN, Chicago, Illinois, dated October 27, 1950 and December 19, 1950, entitled "DAVID GREENGLASS, was; ESPIONAGE - R". One copy of each of these reports is being furnished to Milwaukee for its information under separate cover.

THOMAS ALLAN FINEBERG was associated with DAVID GREENGLASS at Los Alamos, New Mexico but denies close association.

Full information pertaining to FINEBERG'S activities appears in the reports pertaining to DAVID GREENGLASS previously mentioned.

The Lyons Den

By Leonard Lyons

Ex-Sgt. David Greenglass, the Atom Bomb spy whose testimony helped convict his sister and brother-in-law, soon may be moved from the Federal prison, so that his testimony can be used in a new Red investigation . . . One of the world's foremost scientists—a Nobel Prize winner—who was invited to come to America to attend a dinner in N. Y. this month, had to cancel the trip because he was unable to get an American visa. The State Dept. insists he has a questionable political record . . . Baron Gottfried Von Cramm will be on the German Davis Cup team again. His entry will be protested because of his record.

Both Rocky Compitello, the middleweight, and Jack Appel, the referee he knocked down and kicked last week (the boxer later was freed when Appel refused to press an assault charge against him) will lose their licenses. Bob Christenberry, the Boxing Commissioner, feels that in refusing to take strong action Appel was inviting attacks against other referees. . . Billy Rose is negotiating to re-open his Diamond Horseshoe nightclub again. . . Hallmark is releasing two more paintings by Winston Churchill for its Christmas card trade. One is a Holy Land scene painted in '36, the other a drawing-room interior painted in '25.

The Aga Khan is expected to arrive in this country within the next few days. Because of his control of the purse strings, he's the only one empowered to make a final disposition of the Rita Hayworth-Aly Khan estrangement . . . Miss Hayworth, incidentally, negotiated a final settlement of her U. S. income tax matters, for $15,000. The original problem evolved around the disallowance of a tax loss on her investment in Orson Welles' musical, "Around the World." Miss Hayworth's tax settlement automatically places a $15,000 limit on Welles' liability, which means he can return here without any difficulties.

Bob Blaikie, the insurgent Democratic district leader who beat Tammany three years' running—he supported FDR Jr., the Mayor and now Rudy Halley—has been fighting Frank Costello's influence in Tammany. Costello soon will be tried in the Federal Court here. Mrs. Blaikie was on the Grand Jury which indicted him . . . When producer-director-writer Joshua Logan heard that Rosalind Russell had read over 100 new plays in seeking one in which to return to Broadway, he told her: "For stars like you, plays aren't found; they're written" . . . Robin Morgan, the 10-year-old who plays the role of Dagmar Hansen in TV's "I Remember Mama," visited the UN Building where a Scandinavian official asked her, "Are you Norwegian by birth?" The young actress told him: "No. Only by television."

The counsel for the convicted Communist leaders, sentenced for contempt of court arising out of their behavior before Judge Medina, still are unable to find a distinguished lawyer to represent them before the U. S. Supreme Court. There are so few able, available lawyers willing, in these times, to represent people who have anything to do with Communists, that a novel scene may be presented at the forthcoming trial of the newest batch of indicted Red leaders: One of them told a prominent member of the N. Y. bar that in all likelihood they'll use no lawyer at all, and appear at their own counsel.

TITLE ROSE NUDELMAN SMITH, nee, NUDELMAN MRS. LOUIS SMITH			CHARACTER OF CASE DEPARTMENTAL APPLICANT CLERK-TYPIST IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE NEW YORK, NEW YORK

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Records of INS reflect that ROSE NUDELMAN SMITH received an indefinite appointment as a clerk-typist on 11/2/51 and resigned this position effective at the close of business on 11/23/51. The name of ROSE NUDELMAN, 1437 Carroll Street, Brooklyn, New York, was found in an address book in the apartment of DAVID GREENGLASS, convicted Russian spy. The cover leaf of this address book contained a notation that it was the property of RUTH PRINTZ, wife of DAVIS GREENGLASS. Mrs. RUTH GREENGLASS advised that she had known ROSE NUDELMAN as a fellow worker at the Mizrahi Organization of America for from 1 1/2 to 2 years until November 1942. She stated that her association with ROSE NUDELMAN ended at this time and that to her knowledge, she was not a Communist and had never showed any indications of being in any way subversive.

Island, New York. However, the Immigration and Naturalization Service answered this letter by saying that this fact could not be true because Miss NUDELMAN had been continuously employed at the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the time she was supposed to have accepted such a position.

The file further shows that action was taken on April 12, 1949 to show a change of name from ROSE NUDELMAN to ROSE NUDELMAN SMITH, due to her marriage on March 20, 1949. Mrs. SMITH'S last day of duty was October 28, 1949, at which time she was granted sick and annual leave through January 26, 1950. She then began leave without pay to continue until the close of business on April 17, 1950. She was scheduled to return to work on May 1, 1950, but by letter dated April 17, 1950, she tendered her resignation to take effect on April 17, 1951, giving as her reason, "to be a housewife."

Her efficiency rating was excellent from 1944 through 1949, except in 1945 when it was very good. Her efficiency for March 31, 1950 based on her performance from April 1, 1949 to October 28, 1949 was excellent. It is noted that the file contained a letter from a Dr. WILLIAM POMERANCE of 9 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn, New York, which indicated that he was the physician who had delivered her child.

Miscellaneous

The name of ROSE NUDELMAN, 1437 Carroll Street, Brooklyn, New York, was found in an address book found in the apartment of DAVID GREENGLASS on June 15, 1950 by SA LEO FRUTKIN. DAVID GREENGLASS is married to RUTH GREENGLASS, whose maiden name is RUTH PRINTZ. Both are self-confessed espionage agents and DAVID GREENGLASS was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment on April 6, 1951 by Federal Judge IRVING R. KAUFMAN in the Southern District of New York on entering a plea of guilty to this charge. The cover leaf of the address contained the statement, "property of RUTH PRINTZ, 254 Rivington Street, New York City." Below this was written, "Private D GREENGLASS, Company G, First Ordnance Training Regiment, Aberdeen, Maryland." This address book contained numerous names and addresses and included the name of ROSE NUDELMAN, 1437 Carroll Street, Brooklyn, New York.

SA JOHN B. HARRINGTON conducted an interview with RUTH GREENGLASS, who advised that she knew ROSE NUDELMAN. She stated that she recalls her very well and for a particular reason in that she had worked

NY 77-11109

With ROSE NUDELMAN at the Mizrahi Zionist Organization of America, located at 1133 Broadway, New York City, as a clerk-typist. She stated that ROSE NUDELMAN was also employed as a clerk-typist and that she had worked with ROSE NUDELMAN at this organization for from 1 1/2 to 2 years up until November 29, 1942, when she, ROSE PRINTZ, married and left her job. She stated that she and ROSE NUDELMAN went out together while they were working at the Mizrahi Organization and on one occasion, she recalled that they had attended an office party together.

Mrs. GREENGLASS further informed that her association with the applicant ended when she, RUTH GREENGLASS, left her job with the Mizrahi Organization. She further stated that at that time, ROSE NUDELMAN was not a Communist, like herself, nor a Liberal, nor inclined to be in any way subversive. She stated that ROSE NUDELMAN, during her acquaintance with her, had never said or done anything that would indicate that she was anything but loyal to the United States.

She concluded by stating that the reason that ROSE NUDELMAN'S address was listed in her address book, was simply because of her relationship with her at the time that they were both employed at the Mizrahi Organization.

Honorable Clarence M. Kelley, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
U. S. Department of Justice
Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Mr. Kelley

On August 8, 1974 I wrote to Attorney General ~~Scarfe~~ concerning my interest in gaining access to Federal Bureau of Investigation and Department of Justice files concerning the Rosenberg-Sobel case from the 1950's. In my capacity as a journalist, historian, writer and television program producer, I requested: 1) reconsideration of the December 26, 1973 ruling of Acting Attorney General Bork denying my request for access to the records of interviews of David Greenglass and a 1950 interview of Ruth Greenglass; 2) an initial ruling with regard to an attached list of specific requests; and 3) an initial ruling on my request for access to the entire 25,000 page Rosenberg-Sobel file so that I can determine which parts of the file I would like to photocopy.

I was informed by you, in a letter dated September 12, 1974, that the Bureau had decided that "it would be inappropriate to grant" me "total or partial access to any of the Rosenberg files." In light of the language of your September 12th letter, particularly the last paragraph informing me that I may appeal your decision by writing to the Attorney General, Office of Legal Counsel, I was under the impression that the Bureau had made its final decision regarding my second and third requests. (My first request was not before the Bureau, but was before the Department of Justice on appeal.)

Subsequent to the receipt of your letter I received a letter dated October 16, 1974 from Antonin Scalia, Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legal Counsel, stating that my second and third requests are now before the FBI and that the FBI has advised him that it will now consider these two requests because an appeal by Professor Allen Weinstein of his separate request has been acted upon by the Attorney General.

Because the two letters referred to have left me uncertain as to whether my second and third requests have been finally denied by your office, I would appreciate a prompt reply clarifying the question. Has your office made a

a bulletin of the Anti-Communist League of New Jersey

THE FORT MONMOUTH STORY

Spurred on by the organized cries of anguish from the Left, the Eisenhower Administration is now trying to deprive the Congress of its most essential function, that of investigation. The creation of a new Anti-Red agency in the Justice Department headed by Maplewood attorney, William F. Tompkins is dust in the eyes of the public. The Army has ignored its version, the Loyalty Board has protected the Army, and the Eisenhower Administration is covering up for both. The first five volumes of public testimony in the McCarthy probe of Fort Monmouth point to the existence of a flourishing spy ring directly involving the vital installation. The sworn testimony indicates that the McCarthy Committee had barely scratched the surface in its investigation when L'Affaire Schine halted the proceedings.

STILL STEALING RADAR SECRETS?

David Greenglass, a member of the Rosenberg ring, who is serving a fifteen-year prison sentence, declared in a deposition introduced into evidence by McCarthy last Fall that as far as he knew the ring had never stopped stealing radar secrets for Soviet Russia. Greenglass revealed that Rosenberg had told him he stole a secret proximity fuse for Russia while working for the Signal Corps at the Emerson Radio Corporation. While Greenglass was working at Arma Corporation, a Signal Corps subcontractor in 1949 and 1950, the atom spy tried to persuade him to obtain information. Greenglass gave the Committee leads on Communist activity of present personnel at Arma and Counsel Roy Cohn said that after the Committee investigated, Greenglass would probably be called into executive session to confront witnesses.

HARRY HYMAN- ESPIONAGE AGENT.

Chairman McCarthy made it clear for the record that Harry Hyman of New York City, an employee of the Federal Telecommunications Laboratory, Nutley, until October 31, 1951, was the key figure in the spy operation the Committee was trying to uncover in that phase of its probe. On November 25, last year, Hyman refused to tell the Committee whether he was of that moment a Soviet espionage agent. Nor would he say whether he had been in touch with people still working at Federal Tel and Fort Monmouth.

HYMAN ON THE TELEPHONE

Hyman made a lot of telephone calls last year but he refused to answer specific questions about them and would not say whether he had discussed espionage. McCarthy said for the record that Hyman had called the following places: Electronics Research Associates, Inc., North Caldwell; Navy Air Rocket Testing Station, Lake Denmark; Federal Telecommunications Laboratory, Nutley; Air Force Transportation Control Depot, Newark; Department of the Air Force, Newark; and the New York District Engineers Office. Department of the Army. During this part of the questioning, McCarthy forced Hyman to admit that if he revealed who his espionage contact was at Newark Air Base, it would incriminate him. McCarthy, at this point, also arranged to have the Army produce in executive session a soldier who called Hyman collect from the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland, on November 18, 1952, after Hyman declined to discuss it.

LINKS IN THE CHAIN.

A number of other witnesses dodged questions about Hyman and current espionage activities. Joseph ~~Levitsky~~, of River Edge N.J., who worked at Federal Tel until February of last year refused to say whether he discussed with Hyman the recruiting of people into an espionage ring last March. He refused to say whether he had been a member of the Rosenberg ring or whether he had tried to get persons at Fort Monmouth to commit espionage since leaving Federal Tel.

MARCELL ULLMAN AND THE SHORE CLUB.

Marcell Ullman, who worked at Fort Monmouth until 1947, refused to say whether he had organized a Shore Club Unit of the Communist Party to infiltrate Fort Monmouth. He declined to say whether he had been in touch with Fort Monmouth, personnel or whether he had gotten classified information from them as recently as September last year and passed it on to Soviet agents. He refused to say whether he had gotten documents from one Bob Martin.

THE COLEMAN EPISODE

Did Ullman, McCarthy asked, visit Aaron ~~Coleman~~ when he had in his apartment confidential documents taken from the Fort Monmouth laboratories and obtain from him any of the documents or notes from them? Ullman declined to answer. In passing, it is noted here that we are not touching on Coleman's testimony before the Committee last Fall because there is nothing in the record to show whether he had any connection with the current activities we are discussing.

PERCOFF ALIAS HERBERT

Joseph ~~Percoff~~, a close friend of Hyman, headed a Union at Fort Monmouth when he worked there. McCarthy put into the record the fact that Percoff had been a Communist under the party name Joseph ~~Herbert~~ and that his party card number was 17342. McCarthy declared that Percoff had been in touch with people handling secret material at Monmouth. When he took the stand, Percoff refused to state whether he had been getting material out of Monmouth. Asked directly if it were not true that he, Hyman and Ullman had been engaged in obtaining secret material from Fort Monmouth and passing it on to an espionage ring, Percoff declined to answer on the ground of self-incrimination. Percoff had apparently also been active in the Shore Club but he wouldn't talk about it.

MR SOCOL WOULDN'T TALK EITHER

Albert ~~Socol~~, of Long Branch, N. J., who used to work at the Evans Signal Laboratory at Monmouth pleaded the Fifth Amendment when asked if he knew Hyman was a Soviet agent, and whether Hyman had asked him to contact his friends at Fort Monmouth. He also invoked the Amendment when questioned about Communist meetings in his home, attended by some of the employees suspended from Fort Monmouth.

DID YOU AND HYMAN ENGAGE IN ESPIONAGE?

Another witness, Ernest ~~Pataki~~, of New York City, who worked at Federal Tel until August, 1950, found the Fifth Amendment a convenient cover when asked whether he had been in constant touch with Julius Rosenberg while there. He found the Fifth Amendment convenient when asked if he committed espionage with Hyman or whether within the last two months he had been in touch with Communists at Evans Signal Corps and Fort Monmouth. This was last December 15.

THE ROSENBERGS' BABY SITTER.

Vivian Glassman, who worked at Monmouth during the war was a Rosenberg intimate. According to Greenglass when Ethel Rosenberg was out on her devil's work, Vivian would mind the children. McCarthy said Miss Glassman had appeared before the committee in executive session and had refused to incriminate herself when asked if she was a member of the Rosenberg spy ring. She invoked the Fifth Amendment when asked about her connections with suspended employees as of today. This was last November 24 when Vivian was supposed to testify in open session but did not because of illness. Vivian's sister Mrs. Eleanor Glassman Hutner, of New York City, who worked at Monmouth early in the war also qualified as an artful dodger when asked questions touching on this nation's security.

MR BARR'S CONTRIBUTION TO SOVIET ELECTRONICS.

Vivian Glassman's sweetheart was Joel Barr. Greenglass said that Rosenberg was greatly concerned because the Soviets had a very small and very poor electronics industry. Barr, who worked for the Signal Corps and also for Sperry Gyroscope helped remedy this deficiency by giving the atom spy information on electronic apparatus.

FAIR STOOD THE WIND FOR FRANCE.

When Rosenberg feared the jig was up and that the spy ring would be exposed he urged Greenglass to leave the country by way of the port of New York and take a steamship to France. Greenglass demurred saying this was too risky. Rosenberg said more important people than Greenglass had left by that route, including Joel Barr. It was in this conversation that Rosenberg also revealed that Barr had gotten him information about a radar device which would send out interceptor guided missiles to knock out an enemy's guided missiles which had been detected by radar. This was in 1947 when the device was a top scientific secret.

THE NEED FOR CONGRESSIONAL PROBES.

All of the evidence detailed in this brief report is taken from public documents available to any citizen for a few cents. The Administration and the Army brass had access to this information and a lot more a long time ago. Why then are they throwing road-blocks in the path of the McCarthy Committee? What mysterious force is behind this continuing effort to prevent an authorized committee of the Congress from carrying on its legitimate function?

THE ROLE OF THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE.

The Anti-Defamation League reaches into the White House. The general counsel of this dubious organization Arnold Forster recently denounced the Monmouth probe as anti-Semitic in a speech at Essex House, Newark. He also accused the president of the Anti-Communist League of making false accusations against the ADL. The charge appears in the October 20, 1951 Congressional Record that this same Foster's real name is Fastenberg and that the FBI files will show that he is or was a member of a Communist spy ring.

THE WRITINGS OF MARGIT GENCSI

THOSE AWAITING DEATH

~~MARGIT GENCSI~~ writes about the Union Square Mass Meeting held on October 29 protesting the death sentence of JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG. The title of this mass meeting was "Let's Save JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG from death." This mass meeting promised to send one million messages to Mr. TRUMAN and now states MARGIT GENCSI, "I am asking thousands and thousands of persons to keep their promise. The ROSENBERG couple is innocent there is no doubt of it! The sentence of death was brought by the testimony of only one person, DAVID GREENGLASS, who had not been on good relationships with his family for a longer period of time."

MARGIT GENCSI continued repeating that everyone, organizations and individuals, should send mercy requests to Mr. TRUMAN so that JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG should not suffer death in their innocence.

On August 11, 1950, a complainant who refused to give her name telephonically contacted the WFO and advised that she was calling for another person whose name she also refused to give. The complainant stated that the person for whom she was calling formerly resided in the vicinity of the New York Bargain House, 3135 M Street N. On August 11, 1950, a telephone call was received at the Washington Field Office from a woman who refused to give her name or to identify herself in any way. She stated she was calling for a friend to report that CASEY GUREWITZ was a Communist and held Communist meetings at his place of business, the New York Bargain House, 3135 M Street, N. W. The unidentified woman stated that her friend was sure she saw HARRY GOLD, then recently arrested in Philadelphia for espionage, visit the subject about two weeks before he was arrested. She also stated that DAVID GREENGLASS, who was arrested in connection with the GOLD case, was at the subject's place of business about six weeks prior to the time she called. She recognized GOLD and GREENGLASS from photographs in the newspapers. (u)

On August 19, 1950, another telephone call was received from a woman who refused to disclose her identity. She said she had read the article concerning MORTON SOBELL, which appeared in the Times-Herald and was desirous of reporting the fact that it was common knowledge throughout the Georgetown neighborhood, around the 3200 block of M Street, N. W., that CASEY GUREWITZ and both of his wives were outspoken Communists. She stated that the store at 3215 M Street, N. W., which was run by the subject's father, was a center for Communism and that it was very possible that either, or both GOLD or GREENGLASS had been in the store. She could furnish no other details. (u)

By teletype dated August 31, 1950, the New York Office advised that GREENGLASS was interviewed concerning the above, and had denied being in Washington since he was in the Army and then he had only passed through Washington. He denied ever having heard of the New York Bargain House and stated he did not know and never heard of the subject. (u)

Communist Unions

THE COMMUNISTS infiltrated and gained control, since 1936, of a number of unions, principally in the CIO. Their strength in that international body was estimated at one time to be about 11 important national unions.

Two years ago, under the pressure of public opinion and the Taft-Hartley Law, the CIO began to clean house. They threw a number of these unions out of their body, publicly declaring them to be Communist-controlled.

The most notorious is the UE—the United Electrical Workers.

UE is managed by Julius Emspak—long a leading Red partisan. With him is associated James J. Matles. It is a strong, powerful organization, still in control of many plants, particularly General Electric plants, in spite of the fact that not only the House Committee on un-American Activities, but the CIO has declared it to be a Communist union.

The CIO has gone further. It has organized a competing union, the IUE, under James Carey, one of the most aggressive opponents of communism in labor.

The Communist-controlled UE is stationed among the most crucial war industries in the United States, the various electric equipment industries which include important operations in connection with the manufacture of the atom bomb.

A Communist-controlled union is an agency of Soviet Russia. It takes its orders from the World Federation of Trade Unions, which is the international labor arm of Soviet Russia. Any union in the United States that still belongs to the WFTU is Communist-controlled.

When it is realized that even while Soviet Russia was our ally, accepting our gifts to the tune of $11,000,000,000, it spied upon us, stealing the atom bomb through Klaus Fuchs, its agents and such creatures as Harr, Gold, Alfred Dean Slack, David Greenglass, J. Peters and Arthur Adams, we must recognize what it is doing now when the two countries are actually at war.

It is fair to suspect that any Russian spy who needs to work in an electrical equipment plant to do his business for Joe Stalin, can be put to work in that plant as a full-fledged member of UE.

And what is more, under union contracts, the employer is helpless in the matter. He has to take up dismissals for cause with UE officials, with Empak and Matles and their underlings.

Charges could be brought against the employer for unfair trade practices before the National Labor Relations Board and the likelihood is that the spy would be put back to work with back pay.

This is a realistic situation that requires realistic action. American boys ought not to be dying for their country in Korea, while treacherous, spying American citizens are being protected while betraying their country.

J. Edgar Hoover has often boasted that the FBI knows who the Communists are. Well, if he knows who they are, why does he not officially send lists of them to their employers, so that they can be dismissed immediately.

American public opinion will back the FBI and the employer in such emergency defensive measures until Congress can pass a bill to protect the American people from their own Communists.

The time to act is now—not eight years too late as in the case of Klaus Fuchs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. STEINGART were the addressees of an air mail letter postmarked at Newark, New Jersey, on October 29, 1954, which carried the return address of Newark, 351 Clinton Place, Newark, New Jersey, according to T-12. 95

One TED JACOBS, Room 2, 1050 6th Avenue, New York, New York, corresponded with SYLVIA STEINGART by means of an air mail letter posted at New York, New York, on October 6, 1954, according to information made available by T-12. 4u

Two communications were addressed to the subject by Trip Charge, Inc., 5th Avenue at Hamilton, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, according to T-12. One was postmarked September 28, 1954, while the other was postmarked October 8, 1954. 4u

T-12 stated that Mrs. STEINGART continues to receive the "National Guardian," the "Daily People's World" and communications from the Independent Progressive Party, 833 Fillmore Street in San Francisco, at regular intervals. Communications and circulars emanating from 228 McAllister Street, Room 201, in San Francisco, California, were also noted by T-12 as being received by the subject. 4u

Mrs. STEINGART was also the recipient of several communications from Los Angeles, California, carrying the return address of Room 404, 355 South Broadway, Los Angeles, California, according to T-12. This is the address of the Los Angeles Rosenberg - Sobell Committee. 4u

T-12 advised that seven letters were addressed to Mrs. HELEN (MORTON) SOBELL in care of Mrs. STEINGART in the period between September 27, 1954, and October 8, 1954. In addition, a letter postmarked September 26, 1954, was received at 725-C Ashbury Street, addressed to MARK SOBELL. 4u

The 1949 Report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities cited the "National Guardian" as a publication launched in New York in 1948, aiming at national circulation, which they found to be from its inception notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management and contents. 4u

The "Daily People's World" is a West Coast Communist daily newspaper. 4u

MISCELLANEOUS

For the information of the Newark and Pittsburgh Offices, the subject is known to have been associated with the Communist Party and the Communist Political Association in Birmingham, Alabama in April, 1943; in Vallejo, California, in October, 1944; and in San Francisco, California, in the period from 1944 until 1950. u o/s

DAVID GREENGLASS, an admitted former Soviet espionage agent, advised on March 27, 1951, that JULIUS ROSENBERG, convicted Soviet espionage agent, told GREENGLASS during 1945 or 1946 that friends on the West Coast to whom ROSENBERG had shipped furniture were engaged in espionage for the Soviets and were going to China. On March 22, 1951, ROSENBERG testified in New York, New York, during his espionage trial, that HARRY STEINGART and SYLVIA STEINGART had loaned him two tables when they moved to California. u

GREENGLASS furnished a signed statement under date of July 17, 1950, which states, in part, "Through conversations with JULIUS ROSENBERG I got the impression that the man who previously rented the apartment at 10 Monroe Street, New York City, now occupied by the ROSENBERGs, was an engineer also engaged in Soviet espionage, and it was through this medium that ROSENBERG was able to get the apartment. This man left ostensibly to go to the West Coast to live, but instead went to China." When questioned on March 27, 1951, GREENGLASS stated that the above information did not apply to the former residents of the apartment at 10 Monroe Street, but rather to the person from whom ROSENBERG had borrowed furniture with which to furnish the apartment at 10 Monroe Street. GREENGLASS stated that he did not know STEINGART or his wife and that their names and photographs were not familiar to him. u

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG and MORTON SOBELL were convicted of conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the U.S.S.R. in New York, New York, on March 29, 1951. The ROSENBERGs were executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, on June 19, 1953, and MORTON SOBELL is confined in the U. S. Penitentiary, Alcatraz Island, San Francisco, California. u

SUBJECT: PAUL ELISHA WILLIAMS
SM - C

Reference report of SA DONALD E. WALTER dated 9/15/54, at Washington, D. C., five copies of which are enclosed for the Bureau.

A review of this case reflects WILLIAMS has not been the subject of a continuing investigation by the Bureau. The reports submitted to WFO when it was designated office of origin reflect subject was at one time possibly a member of the Communist Party, served the Loyalist Forces in Spain, and associated in the early 1940's with Soviet Espionage Agents. It is observed DAVID GREENGLASS, who put subject in close contact with JULIUS ROSENBERG doubts WILLIAMS was involved in espionage.

The file review reflects further that WILLIAMS has falsified records concerning his personal history. Reports include conflicting statements attributed to WILLIAMS concerning his background and activities.

In view of the fact that most persons acquainted with JULIUS ROSENBERG, who were suspected of subversive activities, have been interviewed, it is suggested that this case might best be resolved by interview of WILLIAMS. It is to be borne in mind that no allegation of espionage has been made against him and no informant has placed him in recent Communist Party activity. Interview would have the additional advantage of clarifying his nebulous history.

Accordingly, WFO will contact local informants to see if they are acquainted with WILLIAMS, and if he is unknown to them, Bureau will be requested to authorize interview of him.

Cincinnati is requested to expedite the forwarding of photographs to WFO so they may be shown to persons familiar with CP activities in the Washington, D. C. area.

~~SECURITY INFORMATION - CONFIDENTIAL~~

The following security risk information on the Atomic Energy Act employee at the installation listed below is hereby submitted:

AT SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY, SYRACUSE, NY

LINSCHITZ indicated on his Personnel Security Questionnaire submitted to the Atomic Energy Commission that he was born August 18, 1919 in Bronx County, NYC. Records of the Dept. of Health, NYC reflect that a male child of the family name of LINSCHITZ was born on October 18, 1919. The record indicated the father's name was JOSEPH and the mother, MINNIE MARGOLIES, both born in Austria.

LINSCHITZ was hired in 9/48 as an Assistant Professor of Chemistry at Syracuse University, which has AEA work. He was granted a "Q" clearance 2/28/50 as a Security Monitor on unclassified matters and non restricted data. LINSCHITZ presently resides at 735 W. Onondaga St., Syracuse, NY.

When DAVID GREENGLASS was interviewed concerning the JULIUS ROSENBERG espionage ring, he stated, after reviewing his address book, that he believed he had furnished among other names, the name of LINSCHITZ to HARRY GOLD as a possible espionage recruit at Los Alamos.

Interviewed by FBI agents on 2/23/51, LINSCHITZ denied that he ever knew JULIUS ROSENBERG or HARRY GOLD or had been approached by anyone to furnish information to the Russian espionage system. He further denied categorically that he is or ever had been a member of the Communist Party.

WEXLEY related that he had also visited the GREENGLASSES and stated that the tenements in which they were reared and the jealousy of the persons residing there left the ROSENBERGs ripe for persecution. According to WEXLEY, TESSIE GREENGLASS had gone to ETHEL ROSENBERG, and at the encouragement of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, had asked her to plead innocent and to blame it all on JULIUS ROSENBERG. (S)(u)

ROSENBERG's attorney, ALEXANDER BLOCH, visited TESSIE GREENGLASS and offered to pay her fare to go visit DAVID GREENGLASS in an attempt to get him to state that he, GREENGLASS, was lying. According to WEXLEY, he had also learned that DAVID GREENGLASS had admitted stealing and converting to his own use $300 worth of tools in New Mexico, and through this admission, he had brought pressure to bear upon himself in the ROSENBERG case. as a Mechanical Leadman, and has been employed there since July 18, 1949.

It is to be noted that the Secretary of Defense has designated the Arma Corp. as a key facility. [REDACTED] advised that the subject does not have access to restricted or classified material. (b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] further advised that no information has come to his attention which would cause him in any way to question the subject's loyalty to the United States.

Residence Record

Confidential Informant T-1, of unknown reliability, who is in a position to furnish information concerning subject's residences and private affairs, advised in January, 1953 that subject resides at 669 72 Street, Brooklyn, New York, and owns the property located on those premises.

II. AFFILIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT

Communist Party Membership and Communist Party Sympathies

Confidential Informant T-2, of unknown reliability, a fellow employee of the subject at Arma Corp., Brooklyn, New York, advised in August, 1951 that he, the subject, and DAVID GREENGLASS, self-admitted Soviet Espionage Agent, were all fellow employees of the Arma Corp. during the same period.

This informant stated that during this time, he, BOIE, and GREENGLASS, were fellow employees that engaged in frequent discussions on Communism, Socialism, Capitalism and related subjects, and that BOIE was very outspoken in expressing views which the informant considered to be identical with the views of the Communist Party, although he could not recall any specific statements made by BOIE.

Informant stated that GREENGLASS was not as outspoken as BOIE in these discussions, although he generally agreed with the viewpoint expressed by BOIE. Informant expressed the opinion that BOIE and GREENGLASS did not associate with each other outside of working hours.

The informant said that he formed the opinion that BOIE was a Communist or Communist sympathizer, although BOIE never admitted as much. The informant described BOIE as well-spoken, very persuasive, intelligent and well-informed enough to be effective in subversive activities.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised in August, 1952 that in his opinion the subject was probably a Communist. This informant stated that he had become suspicious of subject after some strange activities at the subject's home. T-1 advised that every week or two, strangers would appear at the subject's home, remain for a short time, and then leave. This procedure continued over a considerable period of time.

T-1 further advised that subject had been quite friendly in the past with a woman named [REDACTED], and that [REDACTED] was now angry with the subject. T-1 stated that [REDACTED] had advised this informant that she "knew enough to hang BOIE if she went to the Federal Bureau of Investigation". (b)(7)(D)

At that time, [REDACTED] also made some Communist allegations concerning the subject. It is to be noted that the records of Arma Corp. reflect that subject in 1951 listed as a reference, one [REDACTED] New York, whom subject indicated he had known ten years. (b)(7)(D)

Confidential Informant T-1 further advised that he was unable to furnish any other information concerning subject's activities which might indicate Communist activity on the part of the subject.

Relet from New York to Bureau dated 5/20/54.

DAVID GREENGLASS, Inmate, U. S. Penitentiary, Lewisburg, Pa., was interviewed and a photograph of subject was exhibited to him by SA WAYNE G. HUNT on 6/10/54, for the purpose of ascertaining whether subject is identical to ROSENBERG's friend, CHESTER, previously described by GREENGLASS. At this time, GREENGLASS advised that he was almost positive that subject is not identical to CHESTER but desired to view additional photographs of subject.

Additional photographs of subject were exhibited to GREENGLASS on 6/25/54 and he stated subject is definitely not identical to CHESTER. He stated the possibility exists that subject may be identical to another individual, name unknown to him, who also was a piano player and visited the apartment of his mother in New York City in the late thirties. He said this individual resembles the subject in some respect according to his memory, but stated since there has been such a lapse in time since he saw this unknown individual, he could not make a positive identification.

GREENGLASS advised that this unknown individual, who later worked with ROSENBERG in the Como Engineering Company in 1938 or 1939, was introduced to him by ROSENBERG as a "good boy", which according to GREENGLASS probably meant that he was a Communist. GREENGLASS advised that this unknown individual came to the apartment located at 64 Sheriff Street, New York City, on several occasions with CHESTER, SUSSMAN, PAGE and others. He stated he saw him at the Como Engineering Company later working on a gear box which ROSENBERG later advised was a gear to drive a wind tunnel machine for the purpose of testing a model airplane.

GREENGLASS stated ROSENBERG later advised him that this unidentified individual was from Canada and had served time for forgery in Canada and was a Trotskyite. According to GREENGLASS, the fact that ROSENBERG found out that this unknown individual was a Trotskyite was the reason ROSENBERG broke relations with him.

GREENGLASS further advised that the subject answers the description of this unidentified individual as to age, height, shape of nose, hairline and features in the face.

(A) STENOGRAPHIC TESTS - VOCABULARY AND SPELLING TESTS -- A

Revision has been made in the vocabulary test which is used in conjunction with the spelling test and 80-word-per-minute stenographic test in examining candidates for stenographic appointments and employees desiring to qualify as stenographers. The revised vocabulary test consists of 40 answers, each having a value of 2½ points. A total of 25 minutes is allowed for completing the vocabulary test and the papers should be picked up when the 25 minutes have expired. Failure to complete the test will carry its own penalty because for each unfilled blank there will be a penalty of 2½ points. The key for grading vocabulary tests has been revised to cover these changes.

No change has been made in the spelling test previously furnished you. However, a time limit of 15 minutes has been placed on this test. The dictator should consume not more than 10 minutes in dictating the spelling words. He may repeat the words as often as necessary for complete understanding. The remaining time up to 15 minutes should be allowed the candidate for the purpose of looking over his paper. All spelling papers should be picked up when 15 minutes have expired.

The minimum passing grade for the vocabulary and spelling tests and instructions concerning eligibility for re-examination contained in SAC Letter, Number 53-76, dated 11-24-53, remain the same.

Sets of the revised vocabulary test and key for grading will be furnished the field by separate cover. All obsolete vocabulary tests and keys should be destroyed.

(B) RECORDS - DESTRUCTION OF -- Recently an official of the Records Management Service, General Services Administration, appeared in the Little Rock Office and solicited cooperation in retiring inactive records of that office to the Federal Records Center operated by GSA in Fort Worth, Texas. The official was advised that the records of the Little Rock Office were utilized on a day-to-day basis, and that such storage of records would not be possible or practical.

Field office records are too active to be placed in such dead storage. Accordingly, you should advise any representative of the General Services Administration in the event such a request is made of you, that the activity afforded your records prohibits their retirement to Federal Records Center.

Erber joined the Young People's Socialist League in 1932, becoming its National Chairman in 1935. With the founding of the Socialist Workers Party (Trotskyite) in the latter part of 1937, he became affiliated with that group, in 1938 editing the paper "Channels of Youth." After the founding of the Workers Party in 1940, Erber was active with this latter organization and its various subsidiaries in Chicago, Philadelphia and New York. He held various offices in the Workers Party, having been its organizer in Philadelphia, National Educational Director, Managing Editor of "New International," as well as a lecturer at the Labor Actions School sponsored by the Workers Party in New York City. In 1946, he was a member of the National Committee of the Workers Party. In 1948, Erber publicly resigned from the Workers Party by an open letter in a party publication, wherein he renounced revolutionary socialism. leu 0/5

T-6 advised on December 8, 1952 that on December 6, 1952 the subject attended a meeting at the South Bend Workers Home Club, which featured a speech by ABNER GREEN, an official of the Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. T-6 stated that the subject was chairman of this meeting and that in his introductory speech he spoke concerning the case of ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG. Subject pointed out that the ROSENBERGS had been illegally convicted for espionage. He went on to say that scientists agreed that no one man could put the atomic bomb together unless he was a genius. According to subject, there was no proof on paper that the ROSENBERGS turned this information over to the Russians. Subject continued that the government had taken the word of GREENGLASS, Mrs. ROSENBERG's brother, and that GREENGLASS lied to save his own skin. The subject urged everyone to request the President to grant the ROSENBERGS a new trial.

T-6 advised on September 1, 1953 that at a meeting of the Midwest Conference of Deportee Defense Committees held on August 29, 1953 at the Greek Workers Hall, 522 South Halsted Street, Chicago, Illinois, NATHAN CALDWELL, JR., Administrative Secretary of the MWCPFB, had indicated that he was acquainted with the subject and his wife and had inquired concerning their wellbeing.

T-3 advised on December 7, 1953 that the subject on November 17, 1953 had left with a Communist Party member in the South Bend area the following items of literature in the ROSENBERG case:

- 1 copy of "New Evidence in the Rosenberg-Sobell Case"
- 1 copy of "For an Amicus Brief on Behalf of Morton Sobell."

SOURCE: Confidential Informant T-6,

Informant T-6 advised on June 28, 1953 that on June 1, 1953 subject was present at the home of another Communist Party member in South Bend, Indiana, and while at this home was engaged in cutting a mimeograph stencil for the purpose of running off the literature for a local mailing on the ROSENBERG case.

T-6 on June 28, 1953 advised that on June 11, 1953 the subject had discussed the ROSENBERG case with a South Bend Communist Party sympathizer. Subject stated that he had recently received a telegram from New York City that the Office of Clemency for the ROSENBERGs was open twenty-four hours a day. Subject stated that they had lots of new evidence that DAVID GREENGLASS had lied in his testimony. Subject continued that the Federal Courts had taken GREENGLASS's word against the ROSENBERGs'. According to subject, the ROSENBERGs had been IWO members and had been in favor of a "second front." BOORDA indicated that he had recently obtained a donation of $25.00 from an unidentified South Bend man for use in the ROSENBERG case.

T-6 on this same date stated that on or about June 15, 1953 the subject had contacted a South Bend Communist sympathizer and had solicited the sympathizer for money to help pay subject's expenses in going to Washington, D.C. to protest the pending execution of the ROSENBERGs.

T-6 on June 28, 1953 advised that he had learned on June 17, 1953 that the subject, however, had not gone to Washington to protest the pending execution of the ROSENBERGs inasmuch as the ROSENBERGs had secured a stay in their execution.

RE: NATHAN SUSSEMAN
ESPIONAGE - R

Biographical information:

0/s Nathan Susseman was born in New York City on May 3, 1918. He attended the City College of New York and received a degree in electrical engineering during 1938. In 1939 he received his Masters degree in engineering from the City College of New York. He was employed by the Western Electrical Company, Kearny, New Jersey, from 1942 to 1947. He was with the Fairchild Aviation Corporation from January 3, 1948, until the date of his resignation, February 16, 1951. He was last known to have been employed by the Telco Electronics Company in New York City.

Investigation conducted:

The investigation of Susseman was originally instituted during October, 1944, when information was received that Susseman had transferred from Industrial Branch 16B of the Communist Party to the Second Assembly District, Queens County Communist Party. This case was closed on December 11, 1944, when investigation failed to disclose further Communist Party activity on Susseman's part.

During August, 1950, David Greenglass, a self-admitted former espionage agent, advised that Susseman had been a member of the Young Communist League while at the City College of New York and that he was in the same class with Julius Rosenberg. In addition Greenglass advised that Susseman was in periodic contact with Rosenberg from 1938 to 1947, and it was his opinion that Susseman passively furnished information to Rosenberg. Greenglass, however, characterized Susseman as not being an aggressive spy. On the basis of this information, Susseman's case was reopened.

In November, 1950, Susseman was interviewed, at which time he denied membership in the Young Communist League and the Communist Party. He was re-interviewed during January and March, 1951, at which time he admitted membership in the Young Communist League beginning about 1935, and further that he had been president of a chapter of the YCL at the City College of New York in 1937.

Sussman stated he discontinued YCL association in 1940 and joined the Communist Party, Industrial Branch 168, during early 1942. Among others he named his wife, Gertrude, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg and Alfred Sarant as members of this cell. He stated that Branch 168 was disbanded during December, 1943, and that he and his wife transferred to another section of the Communist Party and continued their activities until approximately January or February, 1945. Sussman admitted knowing Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, Morton Sobell, William Perl and Alfred Sarant. All of these individuals have been identified as members of Rosenberg's espionage apparatus. Sussman denied that he had ever been solicited by anyone for information concerning his work. He agreed to testify for the Government in the trials of Julius Rosenberg, Morton Sobell and William Perl. Sussman has been interviewed on numerous occasions concerning the identities of individuals who were members of the YCL and the Communist Party.

In the affidavits filed by Sussman while employed by Western Electric and Fairchild Aviation Corporation he omitted any reference to past membership in the Young Communist League and the Communist Party. These facts were presented to the United States Attorney, Southern District of New York, and in February, 1952, the United States Attorney advised it was deemed inadvisable to take any action against Sussman as he would possibly be a witness in the perjury trial of William Perl and in any further court action taken against Morton Sobell in the event Sobell's conviction was reversed.

Following the conviction of Perl and the final action of the United States Supreme Court in the Sobell case, the facts were presented to the United States Attorney, Eastern District of New York, who declined prosecution because the affidavits filed by Sussman did not call for a listing of subversive organizations, and further because Sussman had resigned from the Communist Party and had cooperated fully with the United States Government.

During the investigation of Sussman, no evidence of espionage activity was developed on his part. This case was placed in a closed status during September, 1953.

Russian Indicted In Atom Spy Plot

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—A Federal grand jury today indicted Anatoli H. Yakovlev, former Russian vice consul in New York, on espionage conspiracy charges.

Yakovlev, now believed in Russia, was indicted with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosenberg, New Yorkers previously arrested by the FBI.

United States Attorney Irving H. Saypol, who announced the indictment, said the three conspired with Harry Gold, confessed atom spy for Russia; David Greenglass, Mrs. Rosenberg's brother, and Ruth Greenglass, his wife.

The indictment charged that beginning about November 1, 1944, and up until as recently as last June 16 the Rosenbergs and the Russian, also known as "John," conspired with the Greenglasses and Gold, and others not known to the grand jury.

Mr. Saypol said the conspiracy "in the main centered around a plot to obtain secretive and classified data and information concerning the atom bomb project at Los Alamos, N. Mex."

If convicted, the defendants are subject to the death penalty, Mr. Saypol said. Gold and the Greenglasses are named as co-conspirators but not as defendants.

Confidential Informant Omaha T-3, of known reliability, made available a pamphlet entitled "The Cold-War Murder", the frame-up against ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG by RICHARD O. BOYER, copyright 1952 by Civil Rights Congress, 23 West 26th Street, New York City, New York.

This pamphlet was addressed to EDNA GRIFFIN, 1108 - 3rd Street, Des Moines, Iowa, and bore return address of GEORGE WILLOUGHBY, President, Des Moines Regional Office of American Friends Service Committee, 1116 East University, Des Moines, Iowa.

On December 28, 1952, an article captioned "Why Death for Rosenbergs Is Opposed" appeared on the editorial page of the Des Moines Sunday Register, a Des Moines, Iowa newspaper. This article was signed by EDNA GRIFFIN, 1108 - 3rd Street, Des Moines, Iowa.

The article criticized the decision of the ROSENBERG case and claimed, among other things, that the case had been tried by the newspapers of the nation before it ever reached the court.

The article also claimed that the government prosecution had admitted that its chief witness, DAVID GREENGLASS, perjured himself on the witness stand when he testified that he had no outside assistance in reproducing the sketch of the atomic secret together with 12 pages of formulae from memory.

The article also claimed that the admission of circumstantial evidence jeopardized the right to the benefit of the doubt.

MONMOUTH EXPERT BARRED IN KEY JOB

Engineer's Case Shows How Security Policy and Value of Career Man May Conflict

DISLOYALTY NOT CHARGED

Coleman Denies Sympathy for Reds at Any Time—Lauded
by His Army Superiors

This is the second of three articles on security problems at the Army Signal Corps' research center at Fort Monmouth.

By PETER KIHSS

For two years an engineer—authoritatively called the "spark plug" of one of the most crucial post-war research projects—has been divorced from secret work at the Army Signal Corps Center at Fort Monmouth, N. J. He had been for the previous five years a key man in planning centralized information and control systems against attack by air.

The engineer's case, somewhat more spectacular than most, typifies a basic problem in the nation's drive for security and against the threats of communism, a New York Times study of the much-headlined Monmouth troubles indicates.

The problem is the relative weight that should be given, on the one hand, to past associations and perhaps poor judgments, and, on the other hand, to actual and potential work in a Government career. Caught in the middle are the fates of individuals.

The engineer, Aaron H. Coleman, 35 years old, of Long Branch, N. J., is now fighting Army charges—filed last Sept. 18, twenty-one months after his dismissal, as a security risk, from the laboratories he first joined in March, 1939.

The charges, leveled under President Eisenhower's security order of last April 27, center on his past associations and a mis-handling of documents in 1948. As in other cases of suspended or declassified present Monmouth employees, there is no accusation of disloyalty or espionage.

Meanwhile, Mr. Coleman, who vehemently denies ever having had any Communist sympathies, also has become the only present Monmouth employee thus far called into a public hearing by Senator Joseph R. McCarthy and his Permanent Senate Subcommittee on Investigations.

The Wisconsin Republican has doubted Mr. Coleman's explanations to the point of threatening perjury charges, while denouncing Army superiors who not only accepted the explanations in the past but lauded and promoted the engineer.

Senator McCarthy further wants the Justice Department to consider the admittedly "careless" handling of classified documents in 1948—which cost Mr. Coleman a two-week suspension—to see if it might come under the Espionage Act.

Officers Uphold Engineer

Mr. Coleman has filed statements with the First Army's Security Hearing Board, in which high-ranking Army officers uphold him. One says his work on the highly classified system for centralized anti-aircraft defense "was outstanding and he was recognized by all to be the 'spark plug' of this project." Another says that in recent years he has become "among the most security-conscious" employees.

A declassified Army description of Mr. Coleman's job until January, 1952, as $9,600-a-year chief of the Systems Section at Evans Signal Laboratory, says he has been:

"... responsible for planning, organizing, directing, coordinating and programming the work of a large organizational segment engaged in the research, development, design and construction of large-scale anti-aircraft systems for employment by the Army all over the world.

"The urgent need for the centralized direction of large numbers of various anti-aircraft weapons, guided missiles, rockets, guns, counter-measures for defense against atomic bombing attacks has been repeatedly emphasized by Army field forces.

"This organizational segment is also engaged in the design and development of new computers, displays, tracers and similar equipment required for completely integrated systems.

"The dollar value of the total internal and external effort in these systems is at approximately $32,000,000 for fiscal year 1948 to 1953, inclusive."

Rosenberg Associations

The Army security risk charges against Mr. Coleman say he was a reported associate of Julius Rosenberg, executed atomic spy, "and attended a meeting of the Young Communist League with him in approximately 1937." He is also accused of having admitted attending "several" meetings of the league while a student at City College and "expressing approval of the theories" of the league.

Mr. Coleman, represented by Richard F. Green, an Elizabeth, N. J., lawyer, has filed a sworn reply that his "sole contact" with Rosenberg occurred from 1936 to 1938. It was limited, he says, to City College classes, except that on Rosenberg's "persistent" urging, he did attend one meeting of the Young Communist League in the 1937 fall semester.

This first-hand contact and later Rosenberg explanations, Mr. Coleman asserts, "confirmed my previous suspicion" that the American Communists were "highly undemocratic" and "controlled from Moscow." He swears he never took part in any other Communist activities, and is "anti-Communist."

At the McCarthy public hearings, a New York business man, Nathan Sussman, testified that he had known both Rosenberg and Mr. Coleman as fellow-members of the Young Communist League at City College.

Roy M. Cohn, chief counsel for the subcommittee, read testimony by Rosenberg, a Signal Corps inspector from 1940 to 1945, under questioning in his spy trial, that he had met Mr. Coleman "subsequent to graduation . . . at Fort Monmouth when I was assigned there."

Mr. Coleman replied that "Rosenberg told me" that Mr. Sussman was a Communist, and said he had so informed the Federal Bureau of Investigation. But he insisted, despite threats of possible perjury prosecution, that he had never belonged to the league.

He denied ever seeing Rosenberg at Monmouth, and said he was in Panama from July to late November, 1940, when Rosenberg might have been undergoing "orientation" at the post.

The documents charges against Mr. Coleman fall into two parts. One came in the McCarthy public hearings through Fred J. Kitty, an admitted member of the Young Communist League at Cooper Union from 1938 to 1941.

Mr. Kitty worked at Evans under Mr. Coleman from 1942 until Mr. Coleman entered the Marines as a 25-year-old volunteer in January, 1944. Mr. Kitty testified that on Mr. Coleman's request through Jack Okun, a fellow Monmouth worker, he had mailed to Mr. Coleman classified Evans radar data in writing and sketches until September, 1944.

Mr. Coleman's contention is that as a radar officer on Guadalcanal, he found Marine radar was more primitive than equipment he had worked on at Evans. So he says he wrote back for material—admittedly without going through channels—to aid the combat effort.

The Army security risk charges against Mr. Coleman cite reports that "in 1946, while you were employed at the Evans Signal Laboratory, forty-eight classified documents were found in your home, and that on two other occasions during 1946 you attempted to violate security regulations by removing papers or bringing papers into the Evans Signal Laboratory without proper authorization."

Mr. Coleman's sworn reply is that he knows nothing of the latter two occasions. But the first incident, he says, occurred Sept. 27, 1946, because he had been "working overtime at home" in Bradley Beach, N. J.

Mr. Coleman submits statements showing forty-three documents were involved. Thirteen were unclassified, including personal notes, and the rest were marked restricted, confidential or secret. Only eight were documents obtained in 1946, according to these statements; six he had received in the Marine Corps, and some of the others dated as far back as 1940.

Mr. Coleman contends he had proper authorization for every document removed from Evans, under either a blanket "white pass," a specific "wiz" pass or a library pass. He says the reprimand was for failure to keep the documents in a safe with a three-combination lock and for neglecting to record declassification—since only two documents should actually have been rated confidential.

Reprimanded in 1946

The formal Oct. 21, 1946, reprimand called Mr. Coleman's failure to respect security regulations "especially reprehensible in view of your long and outstanding record of achievement in the research development of some of the most important radar sets used during World War II, in that such action on your part serves to set an example of security carelessness to other members of the organization."

Mr. Coleman's protest that he had followed a common practice won him a Nov. 18, 1946, letter reaffirming the reprimand but

Admit that "the motives which led to your having had classified documents in your possession were highly praiseworthy."

In the public hearings, Senator McCarthy asserted that a man who roomed at Mr. Coleman's apartment for part of 1943 had been a Communist. The Senator urged that the Justice Department ponder whether leaving material at home, where it might be available to anyone with a key, might have been "a violation which would be equivalent to turning it over to an enemy agent."

The Army charges that Morton Sobell, convicted in 1951 as a co-conspirator in the Rosenberg spy ring, had listed Mr. Coleman in 1947 "on an employment record as a reference known to him for twelve years."

Mr. Coleman's reply is that he knew Sobell as a fellow City College student from 1936 to 1938. In late 1946 or early 1947, he says, he found Sobell working at the General Electric Company in Schenectady on classified projects. From 1947 to 1950, he says, he met Sobell as a Reeves Instrument Corporation worker on Signal Corps contracts in Manhattan.

The Sobell Charges

Mr. Coleman says he cannot recall whether Sobell asked his permission to use his name as a reference. But he concedes he answered a First Army security questionnaire, and had "no derogatory information on Sobell" at the time.

The Army also charges that Mr. Coleman associated with reputed Communist sympathizers, including Fred Kitty and Joe Percoff, and that two relatives registered with the American Labor party in New York between 1946 and 1948.

Mr. Coleman says he had not seen Mr. Kitty after 1948, and had no reason to suspect him before, while he only had infrequent 1943 business contacts with Mr. Percoff in his section. (Mr. Percoff refused to tell a McCarthy hearing if he had been a Communist.) Mr. Coleman asserts his relatives dropped A. L. P. registration after he told them the party was Communist-dominated.

At the public hearings, Senator McCarthy went into 1950 Federal Bureau of Investigation interviews with Mr. Coleman after Rosenberg's arrest. Mr. Coleman said he signed a statement the first time that Rosenberg had told him he was a Communist, but admitted it was only on the second interview that he told how Rosenberg took him to the Young Communist League meeting.

Mr. Coleman contended that as early as 1943 check-ups on his Marine Corps application showed that either Naval Intelligence or the F. B. I. knew he had attended the meeting.

In his reply to the Army charges, Mr. Coleman includes statements showing him favoring Selective Service and the defense program in 1940 and the Korean war in 1950, as opinions opposed to the Communist line.

Rosenberg's trial comment about meeting Mr. Coleman at Monmouth was one of the items that led the McCarthy subcommittee last September to turn its attention to the Monmouth situation.

Mr. Cohn, subcommittee counsel, who was co-prosecutor in the Rosenberg case, says a majority of persons linked to the Rosenberg ring during the trial were "physically" tied up with Monmouth. He lists Rosenberg himself, Joel Barr, Alfred Sarant, William Perl and Vivian Glassman as employees and Sobell as a visitor on contracts.

The inquiry, he says, has had four aims—to show Communist infiltration, actual past espionage, potential present espionage and laxity in Army administration of security regulations. It was a question, he says, of how a pattern developed and what should be done about it.

Results of the Monmouth inquiry, due to be resumed later this month, should be appraised thus far in terms of what the subcommittee has learned about related Signal Corps contractors as well, Mr. Cohn says.

However, he says Communist infiltration at Monmouth itself has been shown not only by the presence of the Rosenberg group but by former Monmouth employees who in public hearings have invoked the Fifth Amendment to bar possibly self-incriminatory answers on Communist activity.

All were war-time employees who left before 1948. They include Marcel Ullmann, who was told by Senator McCarthy that "you very obviously have been" engaging in espionage work, and Albert Nicol, who was told by the Senator that there was "evidence that you indulged in espionage."

Others included Mrs. Eleanor Glassman Hutner, who refused to answer whether her sister Vivian Glassman had been a member of the Rosenberg spy ring at Monmouth, and Harry Grundfest, Louis Kaplan and Mr. Percoff, who denied ever engaging in espionage.

Mrs. Sylvia Berke said she was no Communist while at Monmouth in 1942 and 1943 or since mid-September.

On alleged past espionage, the subcommittee offered an affidavit by David Greenglass, confessed Rosenberg co-conspirator, now in Lewisburg (Pa.) Federal Penitentiary. Greenglass said that about 1947 Rosenberg had told him Barr, a Monmouth and later Sperry Gyroscope Company employe, had informed him about two years secret "thinking machine for interceptor guided missiles." Greenglass repeated his trial testimony that Rosenberg had said he "stole the proximity fuse and gave it to the Russians" while a Signal Corps inspector at the Emerson Radio and Phonograph Corporation.

Senator McCarthy also has reported still closed-door testimony that an East German technician, who fled in 1951 from a laboratory in Pirna, heard Soviet scientists boast of data obtained from Evans. This man is said to have seen microfilms of Monmouth documents, and to have described Evans apparatus manufactured in 1947—well after war-time lend-lease ceased.

The Army has denied that any classified Monmouth documents have disappeared. But it is the subcommittee's contention that documents could have been photostatted when taken temporarily off the premises.

Witness Declined to Reply

As to potential 1953 espionage, the McCarthy subcommittee in public hearings heard Mr. Ullmann refuse to say if he had been obtaining classified information from Monmouth employees, as late as last Sept. 15 and passing it on to Communist espionage agents.

Joseph Davitsky, a war-time Signal Corps employe, declined to say if since last February he had asked any persons working at Monmouth to commit espionage. Harry Hyman, a former defense worker and now an insurance man, declined to say if he had asked Monmouth employees last October to give him classified Signal Corps information.

Contending that the subcommittee's work has alerted security officers, Senator McCarthy has asserted that "it becomes more and more clear that, at least up until the first of this year, there apparently was practically no concern for the security of our secrets."

The Senator also has forecast that perjury and contempt charges will remove some of the Fifth Amendment witnesses from "circulation."

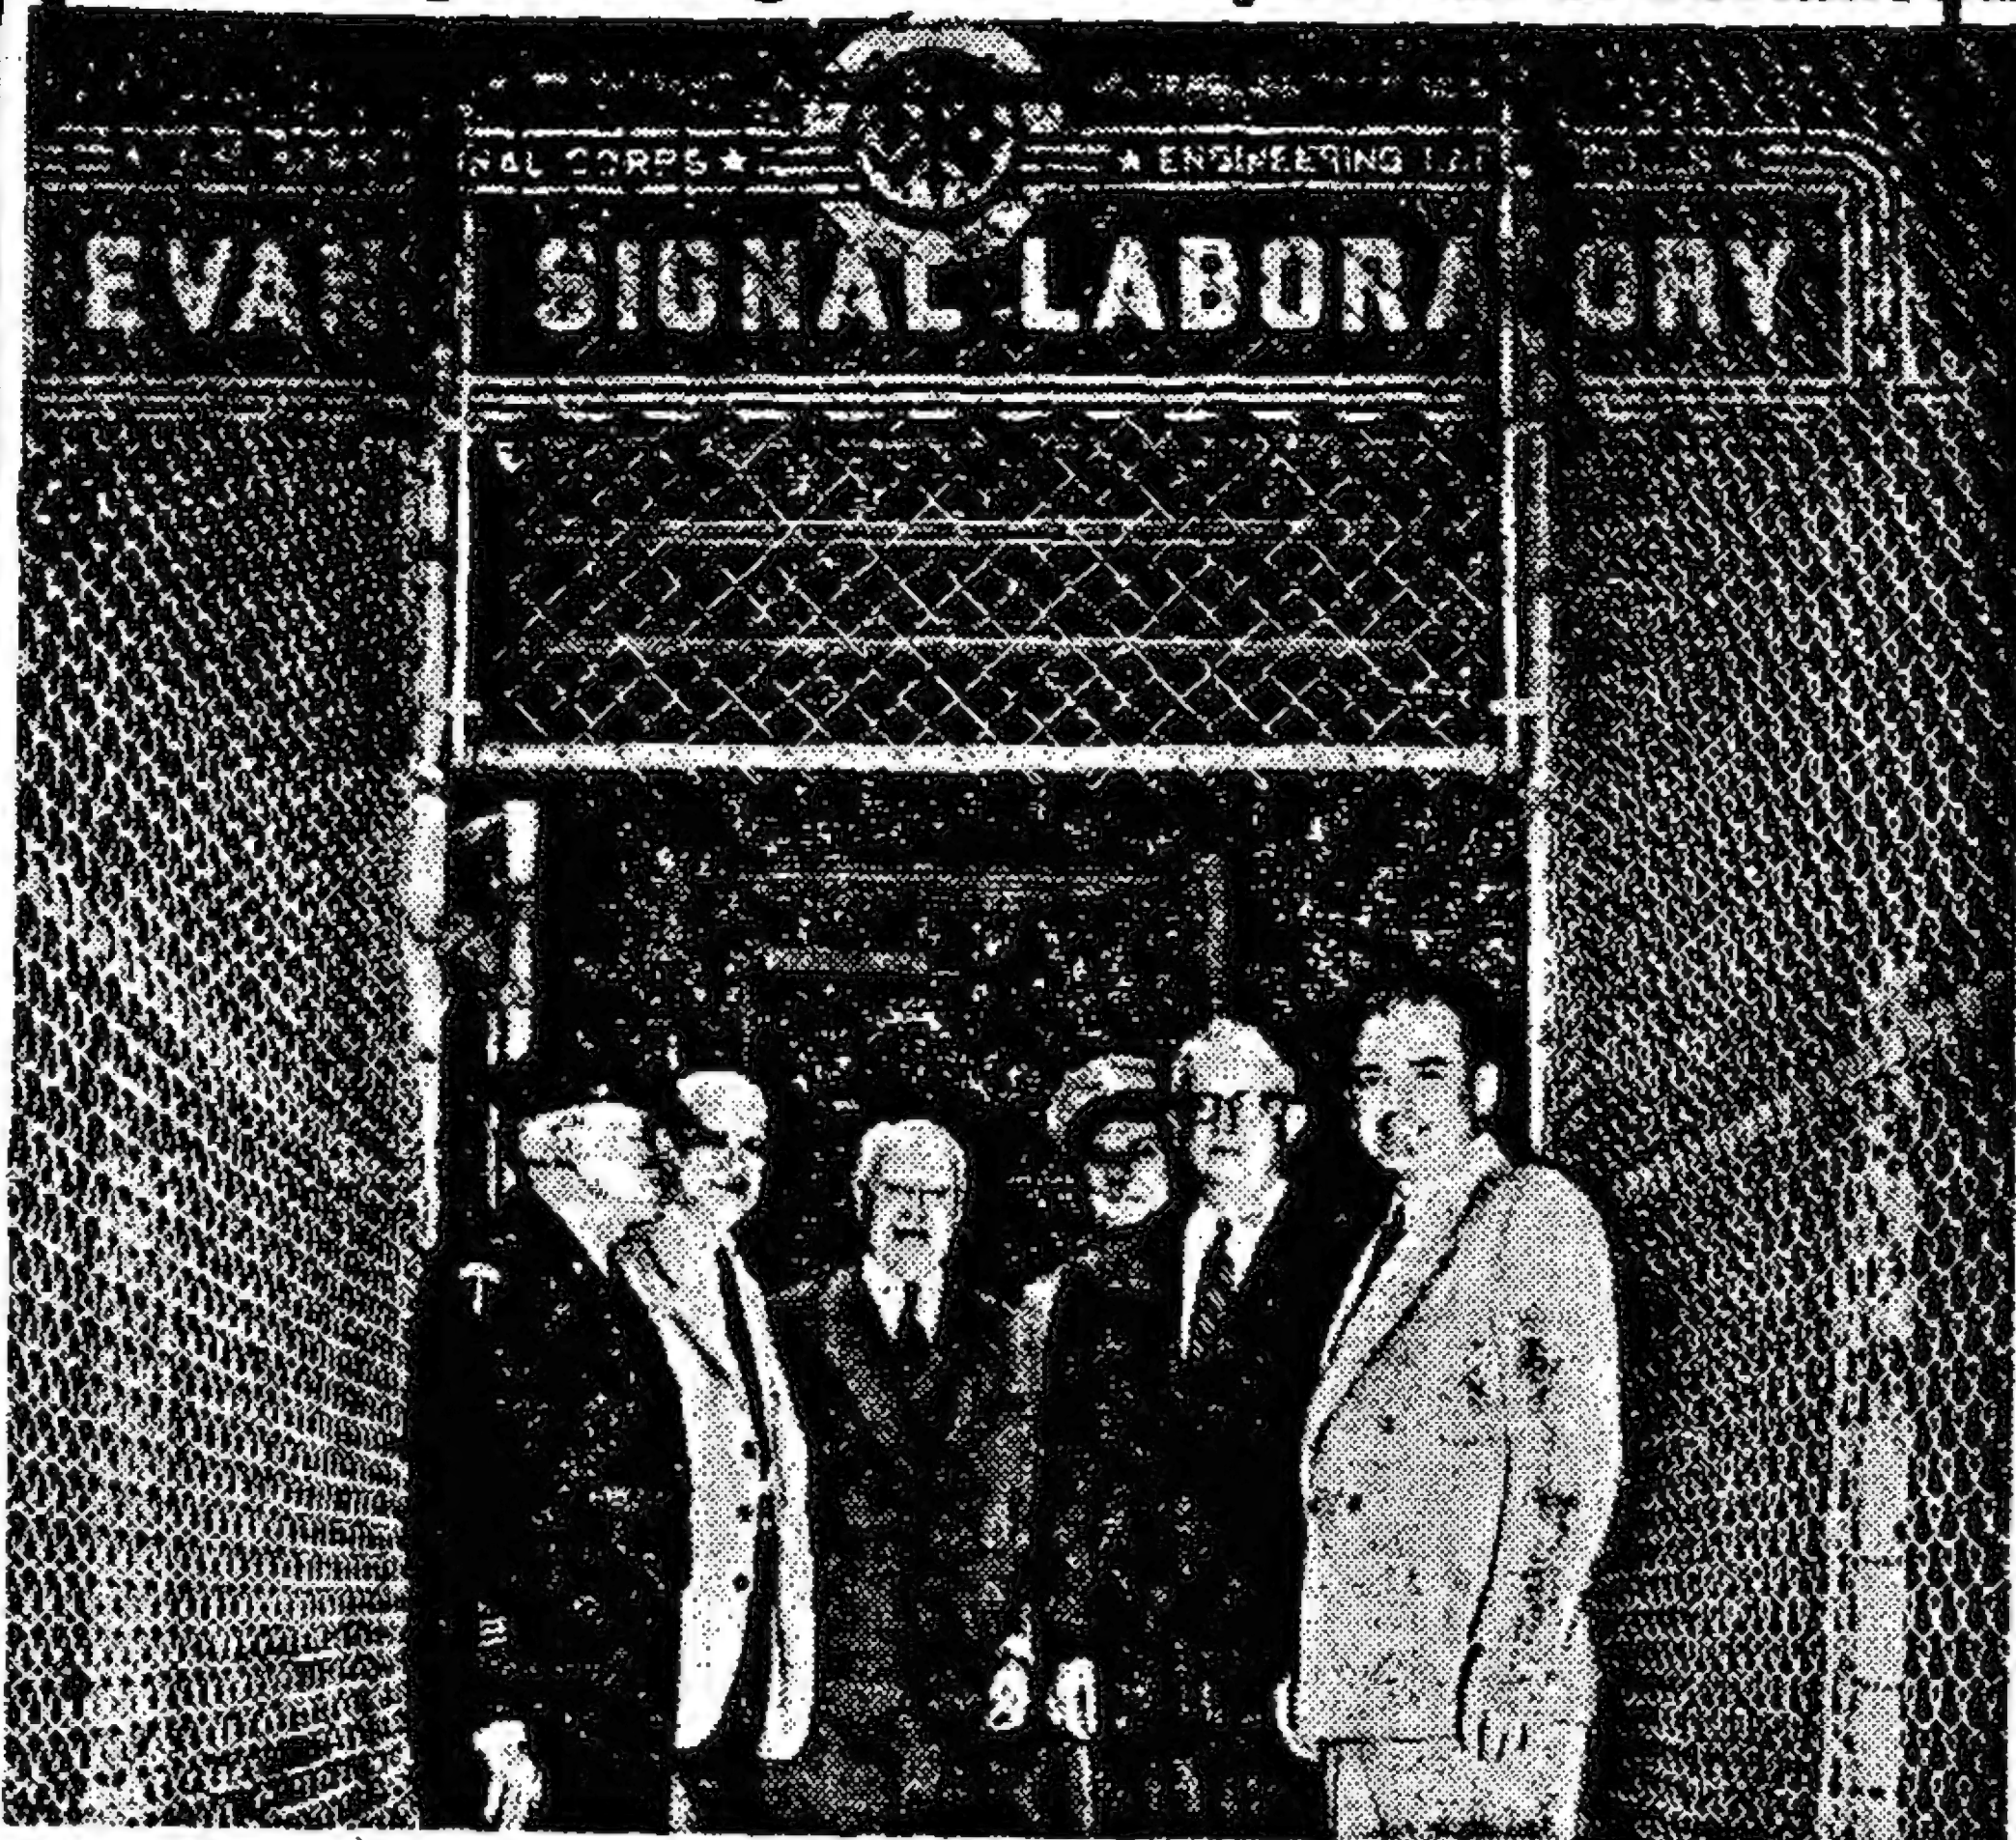

Nevertheless, neither the subcommittee nor the Army has yet charged any present Monmouth employe with being a Communist, now or an espionage agent now. The subcommittee's intimations on possible past or present espionage remain far from courtroom evidence.

The record is that the Army and the Eisenhower Administration had already tightened security regulations and opened investigations under the President's April 27 executive order before the McCarthy inquiry turned toward Monmouth last September.

Thus, Mr. Coleman's transfer from his key Evans job to writing nonclassified radar correspondence courses at the Signal School took place in January, 1952. Declassifications in effect for other Monmouth employees some of them never given any charges at all—date back to many cases for months, and reportedly in two other cases for

[REDACTED]

WELDON BRUCE DAYTON was interviewed by Bureau Agents on August 2, 1950 at which time he admitted being a very close friend and associate of one ALFRED SARANT.

DAVID GREENGLASS, convicted Soviet Espionage Agent, and his wife, RUTH GREENGLASS, have advised that they were recruited to work in Soviet Espionage by JULIUS ROSENBERG. JULIUS ROSENBERG has been convicted for violation of the Espionage statutes and is currently awaiting execution in Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York. Both DAVID and RUTH GREENGLASS have advised that they learned from conversations with JULIUS ROSENBERG during the period 1946 to 1950 that while ROSENBERG was extensively engaged in Soviet espionage, he was using an apartment in Greenwich Village section of New York City for the purpose of microfilming documents and making espionage contacts.

ALFRED SARANT has advised Bureau Agents that he resided at Apartment 6-1, 65 Morton Street in the Greenwich Village section of New York City from approximately October, 1943 until September, 1946, and that he sub-leased his apartment on the latter date and relinquished the lease on January 26, 1950.

DAVID GREENGLASS advised Bureau Agents that although he had never seen the Greenwich Village apartment mentioned by ROSENBERG, there is no doubt in his mind whatsoever that the apartment rented by ALFRED SARANT is identical with the apartment JULIUS ROSENBERG was utilizing in connection with his espionage endeavors.

T-18, of known reliability, advised that on February 10, 1952, M. BLOCK of 248-40 Van Zandt Avenue, Little Neck, Queens, New York, was in contact with VIVIAN GLASSMAN.

VIVIAN GLASSMAN in an interview by SAS ROBERT F. ROYAL and RICHARD T. HRADSKY on August 3, 1950, advised she was very friendly with JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG. She admitted that at one time she was engaged to marry JOEL BARR. She further advised that one night a stranger came to her apartment and gave her $2,000.00 with instructions to go to Cleveland, Ohio, and give the money to WILLIAM PERL, and to instruct PERL to go to Mexico. She said PERL refused to take money and that she returned to New York.

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were convicted in the Federal District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951 on charges of espionage. They were sentenced to death by Federal Judge IRVING R. KAUFMAN on 4/5/51. This sentence was upheld by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals on February 25, 1952. After various unsuccessfully appeals JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were executed on June 19, 1953.

DAVID GREENGLASS in an interview with SAS ROBERT F. ROYAL and RICHARD T. HRADSKY on March 9, 1951, advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG had told him JOEL BARR was active in the espionage set up. JOEL BARR left the United States in 1948 and his whereabouts is unknown.

He admitted having worked as an espionage agent at the Los Alamos Atom Bomb Project. On January 31, 1951, an indictment was returned by the United States Grand Jury, Southern District of New York, charging DAVID GREENGLASS with conspiracy to commit espionage. On April 6, 1951, he was sentenced to a term of fifteen years in prison by Judge IRVING R. KAUFMAN.

NY 100-96312

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI
 FROM : SAC, BALTIMORE
 SUBJECT: FRED JOSEPH KITTY
 ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: April 26, 1951

 ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

 DATE 8-5/87 BY 3042 put-DIC

The following is being submitted for information of the Bureau.

Reference is made to Baltimore teletype to the Director on April 25, 1951, wherein the Bureau was advised that Mr. O. JOHN ROGGE, former assistant to the Attorney General, and the subject appeared in the Baltimore Office on afternoon of April 25, 1951. Mr. ROGGE explained that the purpose of his visit was to advise the FBI that he had been retained by subject as counsel and further, he had suggested to KITTY that he cooperate with the Bureau Agents by telling the truth concerning his knowledge of any activity in the ROSENBERG case.

In explaining his position Mr. ROGGE stated that he was firmly opposed to the present day loyalty program and the Attorney General's "blackball list" of organizations, but did believe that the government was entitled to the fullest cooperation of all citizens in connection with the ROSENBERG espionage investigation. Mr. ROGGE explained that his client had indicated a willingness to disclose the names of his former associates in the Young Communist League and The International Worker's Order, but would decline to furnish any information concerning his family's connection with the Communist Party.

During instant conversation, Mr. ROGGE stated that he had represented MAX and HELENE ELITCHER, DAVID GREENGLASS and others and that he had been responsible for breaking the ROSENBERG case in that he had succeeded in getting GREENGLASS to disclose to the Federal Bureau of Investigation his participation in the ROSENBERG case. He continued that during some of the pre-trial conferences with the Department of Justice attorneys, he suggested that some of these subjects be tried on a conspiracy count in New York and that he felt that he had contributed largely to the conviction of the ROSENBERGS and SOBEL.

Mr. ROGGE concluded by saying that it was his intention that KITTY cooperate fully with the Bureau in furnishing any information desired. Mr. ROGGE POINTED out to the Baltimore Agents that KITTY was much further removed from the ROSENBERG case than MAX ELITCHER, and indicated that after the full facts in this case had been developed it was his intention of recontacting Mr. JAMES I. McINERNEY, Chief of the Criminal Division, Department of Justice, to discuss the position of his client.

9/5 [ No promises of any kind were made to Mr. ROGGE and it was pointed out to him that the FBI had a duty to develop the full facts concerning the allegations of violations of federal law and to furnish the Department of Justice with reports containing these facts.

0/5 [ BETTY SANDERS, a friend of his wife. (u)

DAVID GREENGLASS, self-confessed Russian espionage agent, has advised that he and his wife, RUTH, were recruited to work in the Soviet espionage apparatus by JULIUS ROSENBERG, his brother-in-law. (u) NY

Both DAVID and RUTH GREENGLASS learned through conversations with ROSENBERG during the period from 1946 to 1950 that he was extensively engaged in Soviet espionage in connection with which he was using for the purpose of microfilming documents and making espionage contacts, an apartment in the Greenwich Village Section of NYC. When the apartment of ALFRED SARANT at 65 Morton St., NYC, was described to GREENGLASS he stated that although he had never seen the apartment or its physical layout there was no doubt in his mind whatsoever that the SARANT apartment was identical with the apartment JULIUS ROSENBERG was utilizing in connection with his espionage endeavors. (u) 6270

[redacted] advised on 7/10/51 that JULIUS ROSENBERG had confided that ALFRED SARANT was "a member of his organization". The informant interpreted this quotation to mean that SARANT was a Soviet espionage agent and was affiliated with the ROSENBERG group. (u)

DAVID GREENGLASS advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG told him that JOE BARR went to Europe in 1948 ostensibly to study music, but the real purpose of his going to Europe was to further act as a Soviet espionage agent. ROSENBERG told GREENGLASS that BARR was one of his Soviet espionage contacts in the U.S. (u)

Culture In The Americas? This article contained comments on the subject concerning her appearance at the Continental Congress of Culture held in Santiago, Chile. (u)

In the July, 1953 issue of "MASSES And MAINSTREAM" there appeared an article entitled "The Message Of Santiago" written by the subject. This article concerned the subject's attendance at the Continental Congress of Culture held in Santiago, Chile in April and May of 1953. The following are excerpts from the article: (u)

"The purpose of the congress was indicated by its three-point agenda, which may be briefly summarized as: The adoption of measures for preserving the various national cultures. The stimulation of intercultural relations among the countries of the Continent and outside the Continent; Defense of freedom of creation and opinion and of the specific interests of the representatives of culture." (u)

"But the congress, was by no means anti-United States. The warmth shown me as a representative of the progressive cultural movement of the United States was not for an individual, but for our people and the democratic cultural forces of our country. The workers, students and intellectuals of Chile whom I met clearly distinguish between el imperialismo yanqui- Yankee imperialism - and those of us who use our pens, our canvases, our voices and our teachings to express the interests and aspirations of our working people. The congress itself drew the same distinction." (u)

"In my own talk to the congress I spoke of these two U.S.A's. I spoke of the common enemy, the imperialist conquistadores of Wall Street, of their doctrine of Anglo-Saxon supremacy and white chauvinism, and of the war-inspired McCarthyite drive against culture. But I also told of the fight-back that is developing and of the independent expression of people's culture in theatre, literature, music, art. I expressed the fervent desire of progressive cultural workers in the United States for interchange of cultural materials with their brothers and sisters below the Rio Grande." (u)

o/s "During those days I sang a dozen or more times in private homes, union halls, at dinner, in theatres, and in friends' kitchens. There was deep interest in and love of our music - particularly the music of the Negro people with whom the Latin American peoples feel a powerful bond. They know many of our folk songs through the recordings of Paul Robeson, but they learned some new ones: they sang with me the chorus of 'Which Side Are You On' and called for 'Joe Hill' at every opportunity." (u)

"The Rosenberg case seemed to be on everyone's lips. People expressed such deep concern and wanted every bit of information. What more could they do to help? they asked. The case stirred the Latin American countries, as it has the rest of the world, and there have been many protests." (u)

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," previously mentioned, contains the following concerning "Masses And Mainstream":

- o/s "1. Cited as the successor to New Masses, "a Communist magazine." (Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report No. 1953, on the Congress of American Women, April 26, 1950 (originally released October 23, 1949), p 75.
- "2. Among typical examples of the Communist press and publications. (California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1948, p.49.) (u)
